2018 Education Award Winners with Leaders

June 5, 2019

Welcome Chamber Members and Guests:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, the Golf Committee and staff of the Chamber, it is our pleasure to welcome you to our 32nd Annual Midstate Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament, the Ray Parmentier Classic.

We'd like you to know that your participation in this tournament supports many Chamber initiatives throughout the year including our Annual Sanford S. Shorr Education Awards, named after the Chamber Executive Director who served for more than 30 years. Mr. Shorr was a strong advocate of community service and his legacy continues through the student winners.

Over the 30+ years, more than $126,000 of education awards has been presented to over 150 students pursuing higher education. These students are destined to become our future business and community leaders in Central Connecticut. As we assist them with college, we also eagerly await and encourage their return to work and contribute back in our community.

Please note that the eligibility for the Sanford S. Shorr Education Awards has been expanded. All dependents and employees of Chamber members, wherever they may reside, are welcome to apply for the awards. That's regionalism in action!

For the 2019 tournament, we are very grateful for the participation of our generous sponsors, and we are pleased to recognize our Diamond Sponsors Comprehensive Orthopaedics & Musculoskeletal Care and the Workforce Alliance, Inc.

We are humbled this year that 8 businesses have generously stepped up to recognize and sponsor 8 veterans who will be golfing with us today. It is a great way to recognize and thank those who have proudly served our country.

We have had great support from our numerous Gold, Silver, Pin and Tee Flag sponsors and ads listed in this program book. In addition, numerous raffle prizes have been donated to help guarantee the success of this event. You will find all of the participating businesses listed in this program book who support our chamber while promoting their businesses. We ask that you please thank each and every one of these businesses today and throughout the entire year by frequenting them often. Please remember our mantra: members use members first...and we are always interested in growing our Chamber with additional members as well.

On behalf of the Golf Committee, the entire Chamber membership and the Education Award winning students, thank you for your support of chamber activities and enjoy this day of great golf!

Sincerely,

Séan W. Moore
President
